On behalf of the Madison County School System we are glad to be hosting the 2018 Summer Drivers Education Program at Sparkman 9th Grade School. The class is made up of 2 sections; classroom instruction and actual driving experience. Students will be required to attend all 5 days of the classroom instruction and a minimum of 3 days of scheduled driving times. At the conclusion of the classroom instruction, each student will drive/ride three consecutive days as assigned (1.5 hours per day). Driving groups will be determined by the instructor on the first day of class. The students are only responsible to be on campus during their 1.5 hour driving/riding time once that portion begins. Priority is given to currently enrolled MCSS students.

SPACE IS LIMITED AND SEATS WILL BE FILLED ON A FIRST COME BASIS

- Registration: May 31- June 1, 8:00-2:00 @ Sparkman 9 Campus for the first 45 students
- Fee: $150 per student
